By C. H. T.

It appears that Appomattox County has a potential to increase its attendance record in the years to come, and, therefore, plans for the enjoyment of these facilities. The first home game brought out large crowds, an average of better than the game had to be postponed and played, with short notice on Monday night, and took place on the average home game attendance for Friday, the home-coming final home game of the season will fill the stands. For the rest of the season, our fans on the road. There is no reason why that the team of this year will be another outstanding record. And so, we would like to see with improved facilities, we can now plan its schedule in accordance with a solid basis of support and might consider playing two teams for additional games.

There is an awful jam for space during the noon on Wednesday, the front page of all advertising copy. This makes us unhappy, as we truly desire to present all material offered. Lots of times we are very short of space, which is at the opposite end of the scale. Only thing we can do is to publish as humanly possible, and remainder go over until next week.

The Appomattox Civil War Round Table will meet tonight. Several local citizens are members of this group. The topic tonight will be the siege of Lynchburg in the Civil War.

GIRL SCOUT FUND DRIVE

Girl Scout council is opening its annual fund drive October 21st.

They need your contribution. If you can't give money, why not give a few hours a week to Girl Scouting? Share your time with them, and being Girl Scotus, they're bound to share something wonderful with you. Be it time or money, contact Mrs .C. T. Moses, Jr., Mrs. Clifford Harvey or Mrs. C. R. Thomas.

Girl Scouting represents the best of our traditions — our belief in the future of our country, the pain-staking of our heritage by training our young people. There are 1,446 Girl Scouts in the Central Virginia area. Here in Appomattox, there are 5 troops composed of 72 girls.

These girls are dependent on volunteer leaders — fine people in our community who offer the broad program of Scouting to the girls of this community.

This program is financed through our fund drive locally. We want to pay our fair share of the cost in the Central Virginia area. Most of this pays for cost of training our leadership — this is done by trained volunteers, by a small professional staff and by publications. It is a small investment which pays large dividends in our community.

Please support the Girl Scout program with your gift.

One Polio Case Listed Here

The Health Director wishes to report that one case of paralytic polio has been reported from the county of Appomattox this year, and it was noted that this 18-year-old boy had not received his complete course of vaccine. He apparently took only two doses and these were promoted by the schools when free vaccine was available. Dr. F. J. Clements notes that many others are not fully protected. Some participated well so long as the parents did not have to take the initiative, but when asked to return in seven months to get the third injection of vaccine, they failed to do so.

Dr. Clements wishes to advise all persons to protect themselves against Tetanus (lockjar). These germs are prevalent about humans and domestic animals, just waiting to attack, and every wound, particularly pentranating injuries are potential sites for the infection.

Doctors have to use great quantities of tetanus antitoxin if the patient has not been previously and recently protected with the toxoid.

The medical doctors are anxious to immunize their patients, so feel free to discuss the matter with them without delay.

The Health Department conducts an immunization clinic every Tuesday, at 1:00 P. M., for those patients not using family physicians.

LOCAL BAND TO PLAY AT U. OF VA. GAME

The Appomattox High School Band has accepted an invitation from the University of Virginia Band and Athletic Department to participate in the half-time show on Saturday, November 7, at Scott Stadium in Charlottesville.

There will be some 3,000 musicians taking part in the show, under the direction of the noted composer, arranger and band clinician, Paul Yoder. Over 800 published compositions and arrangements, and world-wide appearances with bands, attest to his popularity.

The following music will be performed by the combined bands in formation on the field.

1. Youth of America.
2. America, the Beautiful.
3. You're a Grand Old Flag.
4. Dixie.

Fall Revival Feature Of Program Here At Memorial Church

Dr. John F. Owens, District Superintendent, Lynchburg District, will be the guest minister, October 25, in the Memorial Methodist Church, launching the Fall Revival Services which will be held during the week. At the 7:30 o'clock services that day, the Women of the Church will present the Annual Week of Prayer Program.

Dr. Owens is one of the foremost pulpiteers of the Virginia Methodist Conference, having served as District Superintendent on the Charlottesville and Rappahannock Districts before coming to the Lynchburg District in June, 1957. The public is invited to these special services during the week of October 25 - Nov. 1.

The special evening services each Sunday during the next several weeks are being conducted as a part of the Methodist Church's Emphasis upon a full and total commitment of every member and friend of Methodism. These services feature a Laity Testimony and a Meditation by the Minister, with a layman presiding, and one leading the evening prayer and another reading the Scripture lesson. Children, young people and adults are all participating in these services and every member of the church is urged to be present as regularly as possible to lend and receive inspiration from these services. The services are confined to just forty-five minutes, including a special selection from either the Sanctuary or Chapel Choir.

The regular monthly meeting of the Methodist Men, Robert Allen Sears, president, will meet for supper in the Felowship Hall of the Church, and a part of the program will be the hearing of reports from the six men from the congregation who attended the recent Virginia Conference Retreat for Laymen held at the Methodist Center in Blackstone. The laymen of the church will present the Annual Laymen's Day Service next Sunday, Oct. 18, at the morning worship service, with R. B. Parris, Jr., presiding. The Men's Chorus, Mrs. C. W. Homecoming At A. H. S. Friday

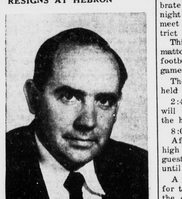
RESIGNS AT HEBRON



. . . Rev. Colie Rock

The Hebron Baptist Church, in regular business session on Wednesday night, Oct. 7, officially accepted the resignation of the pastor, Rev. Colie E. Rock. Mr. Rock had previously read his resignation to the congregation on Sunday, Sept. 6. The resignation is to be effective the last week in October.

During the more than four years that Mr. Rock has served as pastor of the Hebron Baptist Church, he has taught in both Concord and Appomattox High Schools. He has also been active in promoting 4-H Club work in the county and helped to organize and sponsor the Hebron Community 4-H Club.

Mr. Rock has been active in the work of the Appomattox Baptist Association and has served that association as Vacation Bible School Superintendent.

Since resigning as pastor of the Hebron Baptist Church, Mr. Rock has accepted a call to become pastor of the Littleton and Enterprise Baptist Churches, of Littleton, North Carolina.

The Rock family will be at home in the Baptist Parsonage at Littleton, N. C., after November first, and would welcome any of their friends in this area to visit them there.

The Appomattox High School football team and school will celebrate Homecoming here on Friday night at 8:00 P. M., when they will meet Brosville High School in a District 4 Group 2 league game.

This will be the first time Appomattox and Brosville have met in football, and it should be a good game.

The following program will be held Friday:

2:40 until 3:10 P. M., a pep rally will be held in the auditorium at the high school;

8:00 P. M., football game starts. After the game, a dance for all high school students and invited guests will be held in the cafeteria until 12:00.

A band from Lynchburg will play for the dance, which is sponsored by the cheerleaders.

The Queen for Homecoming will be chosen in the following manner: The football players have voted on 3 senior girls as nominees. They are: Sylvia Garrette, Patsy Gilbert, Margaret Bragg, Patsy Tolley, and Linda Hunter. The school will vote vote on Friday to elect one girl from this group and she will be crowned Fri. night between halves of the game. Each contestant will pick her own escort for this affair, and for the dance which follows the game.

There will be no homecoming parade this year, but the high school band and majorettes will perform before and during the game.

This is the final home game of the football season, and Coach Gordon Bragg hopes for a large turnout of fans to witness the encounter.

Appomattox has had an excellent season thus far in the schedule. The only game lost was to V. E. S., and the local team is in a strong position for league honors. In a postponed tilt, A. H. S. defeated the Hargrave Military Academy "B" team handily here Monday night.

Remaining games on the schedule will send Appomattox to Gretna, Buckingham, Brookville and Madison, in that order.
